

AFGHANISTAN

CRITICAL

Kabul ★

AFGHANISTAN
Farah
Helmund
Qanda

Hi Folks,

I want to first of all thank all of you that have been praying and responding to my last post on my Facebook. Many of you have tried to make connections and called people you know. For that, I can't thank you enough.

We're still in the fight. You can see the bomb attacks just happened in Kabul today (August 26) that killed at least 12 U.S. servicemen. We only have a few days left before the August 31 deadline set by Biden.

So, we're still urgently trying to rescue 7 of our local pastors and staff that have led the work of Metro Sunday School there in Kabul Afghanistan.

The pressure is on. I've tried everything I know to find people with influence, money, an airplane, any kind of connections and even organizations that said they can get people out from Kabul to help us, but I can't seem to get anybody to actually do it. It's extremely frustrating... Things are getting tougher and tougher.

THIS IS NOT A GAME! All of you know that. It's coming down to the wire. And we've got to do whatever it takes to get our people out of there.

I NEED YOUR HELP.

I need your prayers.
I need you to keep looking for connections.
I need to get enough support raised to fund this operation.

Getting folks out is obviously the priority, but we also need to get food for the people that are left there and the ones that we're trying to get out to neighboring countries.

It is what it is... I really need each one of you to share this request and the urgency with anyone that will listen. We will keep going until we get it done, in Jesus' name.

I NEED YOUR HELP...I NEED IT NOW.
THANK YOU. THANK YOU. THANK YOU...
That's all I've got for now. Please let me hear from you.

Bill

